

No Gift Policy Announcement of Nakhamrajransan school

Nakhamrajransan school is committed to achieving its mission with good governance, emphasizing the prevention and suppression of corruption and misconduct to build trust and confidence in society that Nakhamrajransan school is an organization with integrity. As the school's administrator, I hereby declare the intent of the No Gift Policy, in performing duties with honesty, transparency, and accountability, ready to resist corruption in all forms. All personnel are encouraged to carry out their tasks with integrity, honesty, morality, and without corruption under the following policies

1. Transparency: Disclose information on the school's operations, including procurement data. Allow the public and stakeholders to participate in monitoring, with a clear complaint management system.

2. Accountability: Strive to perform public duties efficiently under laws, regulations, and correct procedures. Be accountable for decisions and management, ensuring public confidence in Nakhamrajransan school

3. Corruption-Free: Perform duties with honesty and integrity, not using the position for personal gain or accepting bribes.

4. Organizational Integrity Culture: Reject all forms of corruption and take action to prevent corruption within the organization. Nakhamrajransan school declares itself an organization where all public officials do not accept gifts or gratuities in the course of duty.

5. Workplace Ethics: Establish clear standards of work, fairness in operations, justice, and transparency in personnel management, budget administration, and work assignments.

Hereby announced to be acknowledged and practiced by all involved

Given on January 5, B.E. 2567 (2024)

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of a stylized 'W' followed by a horizontal line and a diagonal stroke.

(Acting Lt. Wuttichai Paiplo)

Director of Nakhamrajransan School